

I support New Jersey's Do Not Call List as is currently enforce.
Any changes by the FCC to weaken its effectiveness, and allow businesses to solicit individuals against their desire, makes the FCC complicit in not affording consumer protection.